Principal and His Message to the Class of 1965

Paula Johnson

There was a yesterday and there will be a tomorrow. What you do today has been influenced by yesterday and may be very important in the tomorrows to come.

With this bit of philosophy as a guide make each day worthwhile, for today will become yesterday and tomorrow will become today. Fashion your life in such a manner that your family, your friends, your school, your community, and your country will know you as one who has learned much from yesterday - who serves well and enjoys today - who knows there will always be a tomorrow.

Too often mankind has lived for today without regard for what has happened or what will happen. You will be a better citizen and happier individual if you maintain a proper balance between the past, the present and the future.

Board of Education

The Board of Education consists of representatives of our high school district and they help to provide the students with proper facilities and equal opportunities. We wish to express our appreciation to the Board for their outstanding work. First row: Stanley Stoxen, Treasurer; Robert Badger, Clerk; Henry Bierdz, President; Marlin Schnurr, Principal. Second row: Robert Horton, Marvin Richter, Verle Swenson, and Melvin Lake.

Best written Gene Olson

Although being Assistant Principal is a time-consuming job, Mr. Gene O. Olson still finds time to be advisor to the National Honor Society and the Student Council.

Dedication

Every class holds fond memories of the many faculty members who have helped their class through a profitable and successful four years in high school.

One of these dedicated people who stands out and will leave a part of himself in the minds of those of the Class of 1965 is Mr. Richard Hart.

There exists no formula, no definite pattern which guarantees success, but - - - because - as a teacher, you gave us guidance and inspiration to work for greater heights and achievements, because - as a friend, you understood us and listened to our problems, because - as a coach, you instilled drive and ambition into our team with your motto "winners never quit and quitters never win." And we feel this is why you gained the title "Coach of the year."

So because of all these things, we the graduating Class of 1965, dedicate this annual to you, Mr. Hart.

*Get mean
& stay that way
I expect big things from you next year
R. Hart*

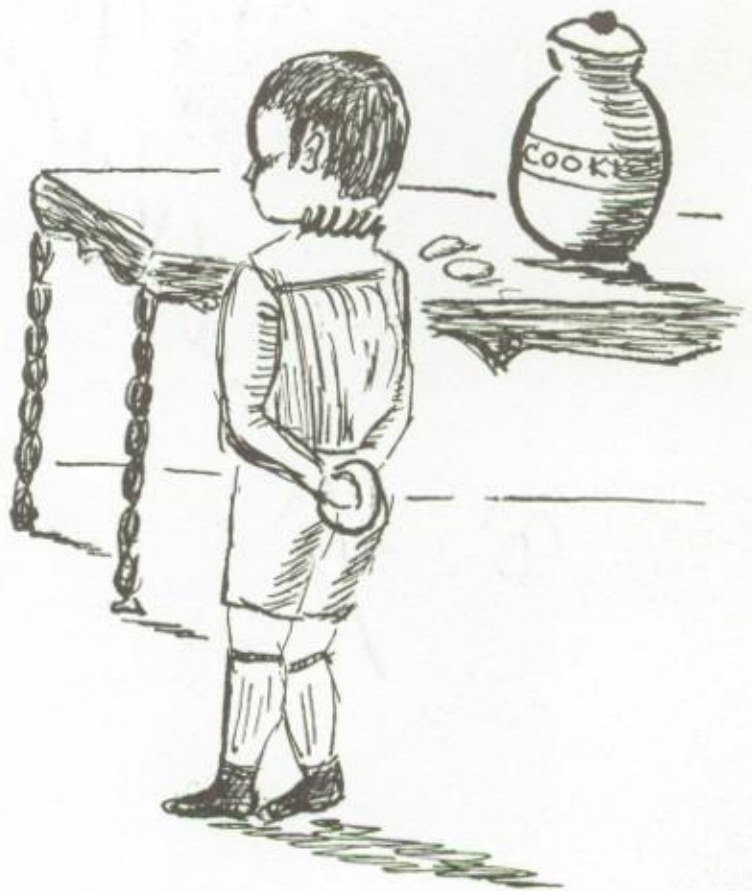

Jeff.
Good luck to a real sweet person.
Have fun this summer.

Love,
Maomi

Good luck

Jeff.
Stay till for
August 16, and will see you around. Rick

Four years have lapsed since we first walked through the doors of Wilmot. Soon we will be walking out, never to walk back again as a part of high school. We have taken our turn and now it is over but many memories we have always to cherish.

We started our Freshman year with Mr. Schroeder as our advisor. The first big event of our Freshman year was Homecoming. We chose Rusty Tilton to represent us and he picked Judy Krumpfen as his date. Later in the year the Sophomores invited us to a sockhop so we could get to know each other better.

Our Sophomore year arrived in no time and we started the year not as frightened as the year before. Mike Haley and Connie LaFayette represented us at Homecoming. Also, our skit entitled "Oriental Homecoming" took first place. The next event was a sockhop in honor of the Freshmen.

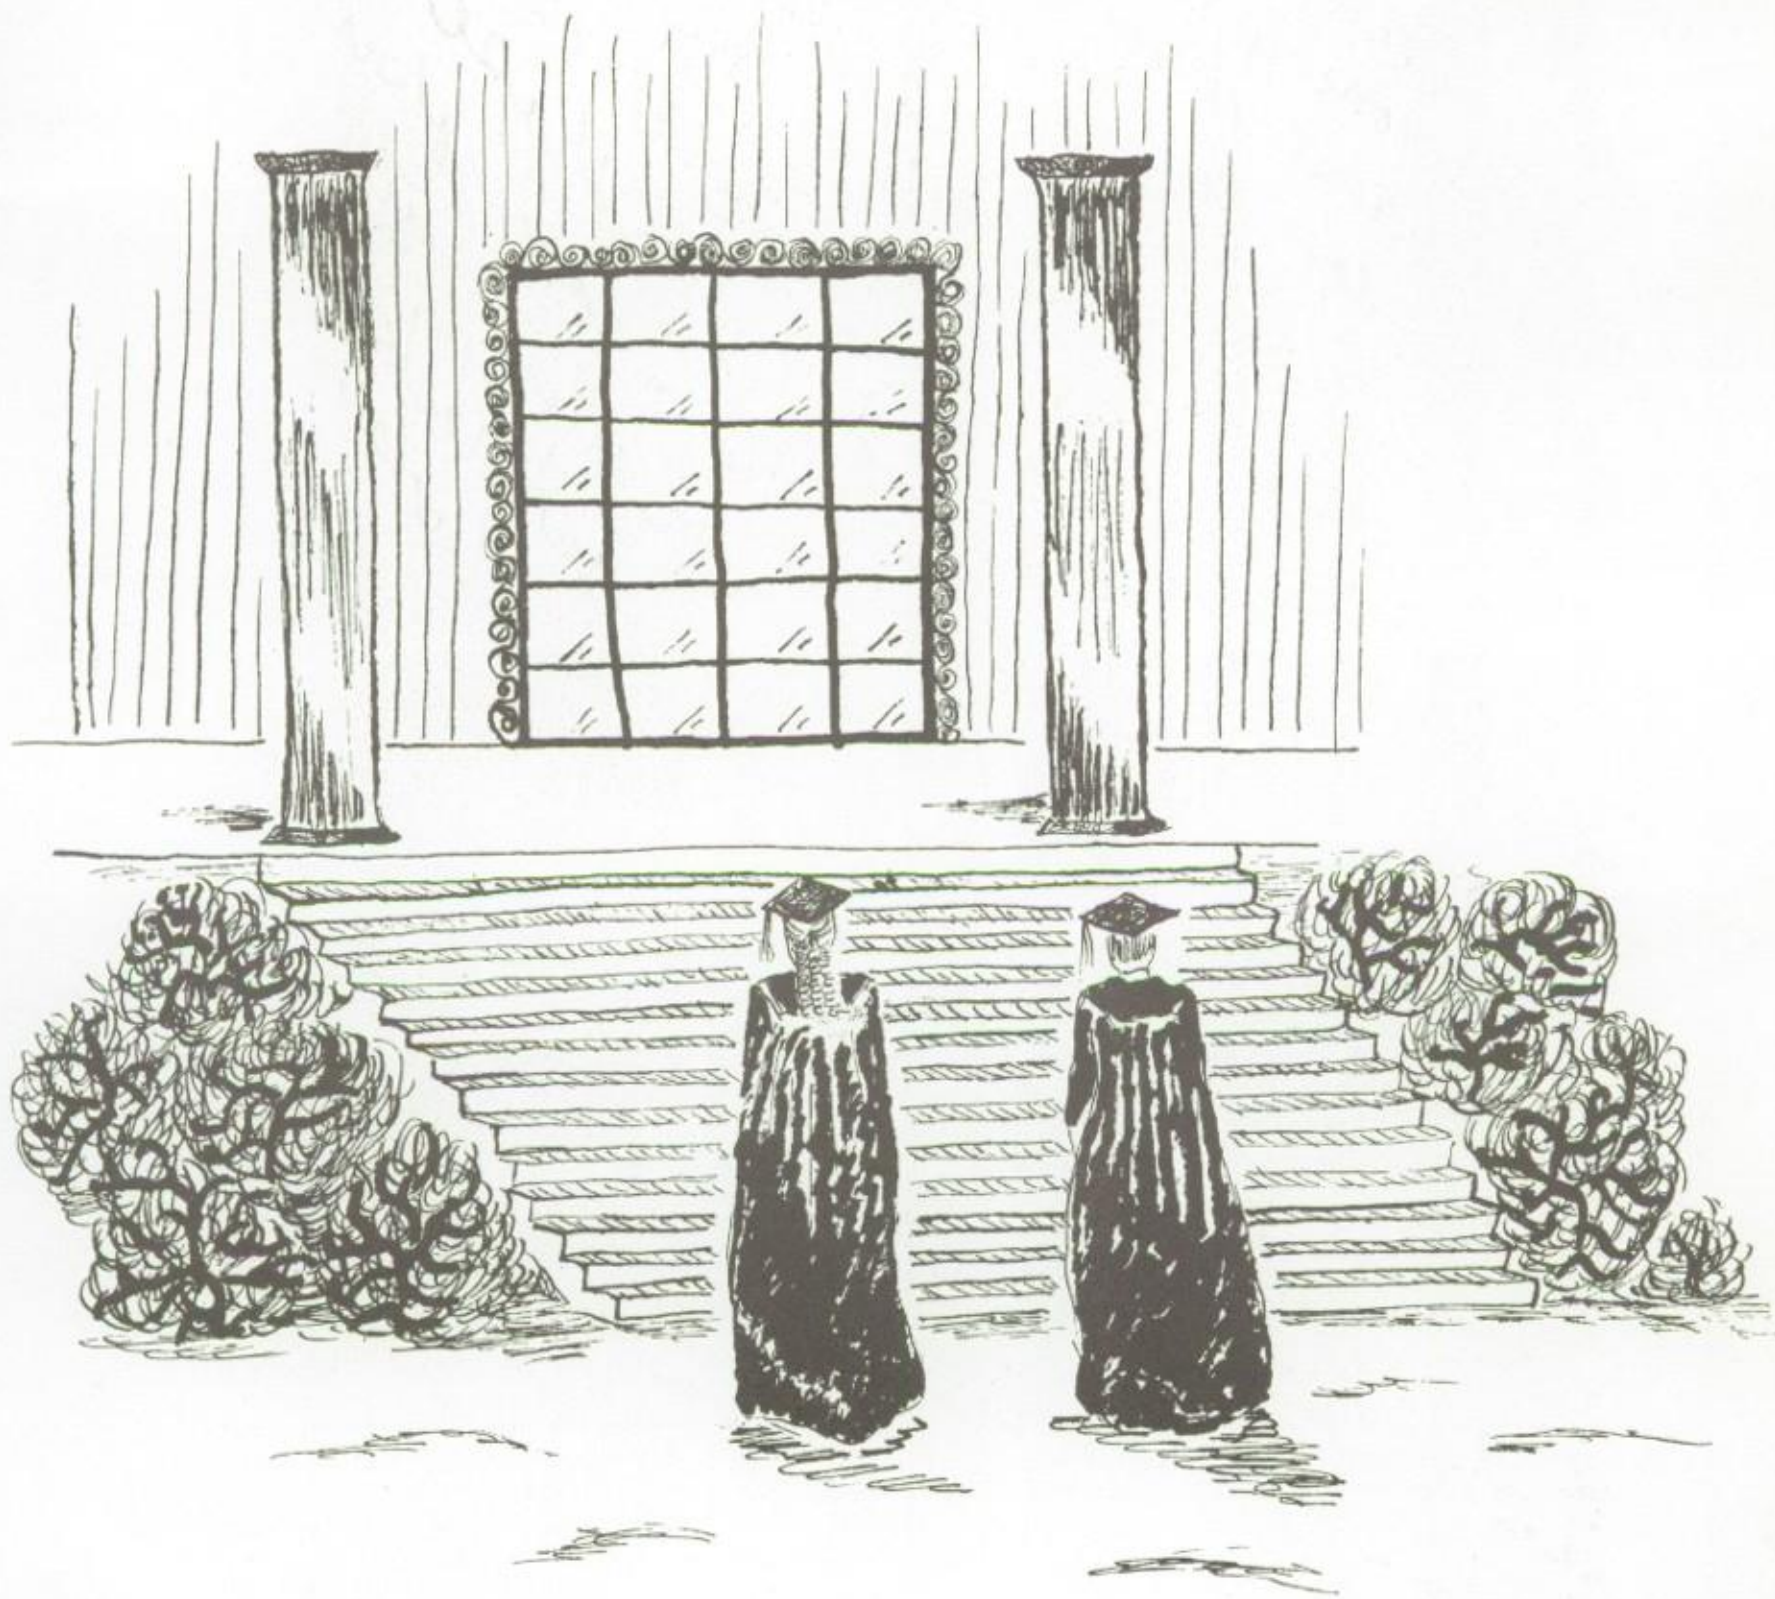

The second year of high school was over and we, no longer being underclassmen, were faced with a big Junior year. At the first meeting, we were told of our new advisor, Mr. Bucci. Homecoming was bigger and better this year with Dan Lois and Eileen Ryan representing us. Again our skit, "A Coach's Dream," took first place. Finally the day came when the announcement was made that our rings had arrived. What a big day of the year that was. Another activity that took place was our class play, "Meet Me in St. Louis." But the biggest occasion of the year was the night of April 25, our Junior Prom, "Moonlight on the Mississippi." John Tindall reigned as King and Marsha Rittmer as our Queen. The attendants who shared the royalty were: Rusty Tilton and Ellen Meinke, Jim Rasch and Sandy Robers, Ken Swenson and Diane Stopa, and Ed Muller and Jan Staudenmaier.

Suddenly came the time for our last year at Wilmot. Homecoming was again the highpoint with Queen Linda Oetting and King Mike Haley reigning over the festivities. Halftime was glorified with our victory float with Queen Linda riding high. Jan Staudenmaier and Ken Schenning were the attendants also representing us. The Seniors took all honors winning with our skit, "Badger Stew." In the middle of February we gave our Senior dance, Shindig 65, which was enjoyed by all who attended. Then came the time for our class play entitled "The Egg and I." It was very well done by all those who participated in it, and enjoyed by all those who viewed it.

The banquet was our last class activity before graduation. The finale of our Senior year was the presentation of our annual. Into this one volume, we have combined all of our hard work and memorable experiences.

Now our last and final year is coming to a close. There is nothing more to do except look back. While we look back many times, we shall always say "thank you Wilmot, for the four most wonderful years of our lives."

Class Officers: Kristen Olson, vice-president; Gerald Graff, president; Linda Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Anderson, advisor.

Our Junior activities began with the selection of our Homecoming attendants. We chose Don Gallagher and Donna Vanderzee, who were truly fine representatives of our class. As we progress in high school, our tasks become more and more complex. The first of these tasks was our play, "Annie Get Your Gun," which, after many nights of work and fun, was presented on November 6. Second came the all-important selection of our class rings. Then, after many weeks of anxious waiting, they finally came! To us the climax of our Junior year came on April 24, when we presented our Prom, "Tender is the Night."

Sophomores

We, the Sophomores, came back to attend another year of fun and interesting activities. Our year started with an election of class officers. The elected officers were Jerry Tindall, President; Corine Singleton, Vice-President; and Laura Kucharzyk, Secretary-Treasurer.

Our class then chose Dennis Ketterhagen as our homecoming attendant and as his date he asked Corine Singleton. Another special date which we looked forward to was the Sophomore Sockhop, which was held in the early part of the school year. The Freshmen then returned the favor on March 19, 1965.

Our big day came when we trampled the Seniors in a battle which we triumphed in basketball.

We all feel our year was successful and we look forward to a successful Junior year.

Freshmen

Our first year at Wilmot started on September 3rd. At our first class meeting we met our advisor, Mr. Amoth, elected our officers, and chose our homecoming attendant, Lynn Rittmer, who chose Tam O'Mara as his date.

Later in the year the Sophomores invited us to a sockhop. On March 19, we gave a return dance.

As our Freshman year comes to a close, we are eagerly looking forward to our three remaining years.

Class Officers: Mike Thom, president; Jo Anne Een, vice-president; Mary Bartels, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Amoth, advisor.

Student Council

The members of Student Council are those students elected by their classes as representatives in Wilmot's Student Government. There are five members from the Senior class, four from the Junior class, and three each from the Sophomore and Freshmen classes. These representatives express the wishes of their fellow students. Patrolling the halls, planning the Christmas party and the picnic, supervising the Student Council elections, and helping the various school functions are the main duties of the Student Council each year. New ideas brought up and carried out were the ordering of the flags, booster buttons, book covers, and making and mounting the Panther mascot in the gym.

Cardinal Quill

Mr. J. Shaner, advisor, and Catherine Sherman and Janet Best, co-editors.

The hard-working staff and advisor of the Cardinal Quill work laboriously to get the paper out once a month. It is made up of voluntary members and stories are also written for the paper by the Journalism class. During the past year, new mascots were created by Liza Renwick and Tom Robers.

Girls' Athletic Association

Any girl interested in sports may join GAA. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in sports like volleyball and basketball and encourage good sportsmanship. This year the girls participated in volleyball tournaments. The girls are awarded letters, bars, and medals for their work done in GAA.

Boys' Athletic Association

Membership in the B.A.A. is open to all boys interested in sports. Through the B.A.A. letters are awarded to the boys for their achievements in our different sport activities. The club uses its money to buy athletic equipment needed by the different sports and also sponsor the annual homecoming dance.

Wilmot Homemakers of Tomorrow

The WHT is open to all girls interested in Home Economics. They hold meetings two times a month. Each girl works on a project. Several demonstrations are given each year at the meetings.

This year's highlight was a trip to Avon Products and Sara Lee Bakeries.

Row 1: K. Kube, S. Gandt, J. Platts, C. Vanderwerff, M. Kovacevich, D. Koch, B. Mayo, C. Hignite, D. LoPalm, M. Kucharzyk, B. Hackmeister, K. Eckert, E. Richards, L. Kaskin. Row 2: Mrs. Reuter, J. # Wilmot Library Society

Officers: Mrs. MacDonald, advisor; Donna James, vice-president; Florence Schipper, president; Dorothy Schipper, secretary-treasurer.

The Wilmot Library Society, under the direction of Mrs. MacDonald, is a club designed to help the students and the faculty in answering any questions that they might have about the library. Their everyday duties include checking out books, shelving, and assisting with the daily records. They also are in charge of keeping the library looking its best at all times. The purpose of their meetings is to discuss and learn about the different library procedures and problems.

Row 1: L. Hewitt, C. Balasz, D. Brown, I. Kempken, S. Nihill, S. Stronczek, M. Wellwood. Row 2: F. Schipper, D. Schipper, J. Best, S. Voltz, D. James, N. Kuebker, C. John.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is composed of the students who are taking Spanish or have taken Spanish. One of the things that the Spanish students enjoy about their meetings is that they are shown the way the people of Mexico live. These are shown by the talks and films that are given by Mr. Bilotti, the club's advisor, and also by students who have had the privilege of seeing Mexico. Also, of interest to the members is the language lab where they can sing songs or improve their Spanish speaking ability.

Officers and advisor: Dorothy Schipper, president; Diane Olson, treasurer; Sue Gronke, secretary; Donna Brown, vice-president; Mr. Bilotti, advisor.

Row 1: N. Morse, S. Stockwell, L. Greskiw, K. Haley, I. Kempken, M. Wellwood, S. Gronke. Row 2: Mr. Bilotti, J. Schmalfeldt, C. Russell, D. Olson, K. Olson, C. Koch, K. Riehle, N. Kuebker, D. Brown. Row 3: M. Hardt, C. Trussell, D. James, F. Gedell, D. Schipper, M. Haley, J. Riehle, L. Baker.

Latin Club

The Latin Club was formed last year to give students interested in Latin and in the Roman people an opportunity to learn more about them through activities outside the classroom. The Latin Club meets regularly with its advisor, Mrs. Jedele, to plan activities such as the annual trip and an authentic Roman banquet, which they hope to have in the future. The Latin Club is open to any student taking, or who has taken Latin.

Officers and Advisor: Mrs. Jedele, advisor; Carol Vanderwerff, Secretary-Treasurer; Ellen Richards, Vice-President; Tim Elverman, President.

Photo Club

Throughout the year the members of the Camera Club try to improve their understanding of photography by reading materials concerning photography and by using the well-equipped dark room furnished by the school. New members are always welcomed if they show a sincere desire to learn the fundamentals of photography.

Science Club

Officers: Jack Sokolski, president; Mr. Peterson, advisor; Barbara Kisner, secretary-treasurer; Norman Richter, vice-president.

The Science Club is an organization which has been formed to promote study of all the sciences and promote the individual's interest in science. Many of the members have been encouraged to conduct their own personal experiments under the guidance of their advisor, Mr. Peterson. Several movies were shown throughout the year on subjects such as aerodynamics, sound, light, genetics, and microbiology. During the spring, the club visited the Argonne National Laboratories in Illinois and were shown the various experiments on atomic energy which were being conducted there.

Row 1: D. Brown, C. Yanke, C. Hignite, C. Sherman, M. Wellwood, N. Morse. Row 2: Mr. Peterson, N. Richter, R. Ebeling, B. Kisner, D. Perry, J. Sokolski, C. Balazs.

Officers: Shirley Gandt, vice-president; Diedre Zirzow, treasurer; Brynda Hanson, secretary; Mr. Hausman, advisor; Kathy Eckert, president.

Pep Club

The Pep Club was a new club this year at Wilmot. They were organized to help promote school spirit. The club made posters and put on skits at pep rallies. They were a great asset to the cheerleaders during the games.

Row 1: S. Gandt, N. Morse, B. Hackmeister, S. Stronczek, N. Kuebker, C. Koch, M. Kovacevich, K. Haley, R. Weyrauch, C. Sherman, J. Krumpen, K. Eckert. Row 2: J. Badger, M. Stafford, R. Davis, D. # National Honor Society

This year the National Honor Society initiated seventeen new members on November 13, 1964. All Society members are chosen on the basis of their outstanding character, leadership, scholarship, and service to the school.

Stress was given to the possibility of Wilmot getting a foreign exchange student through the A.F.S.

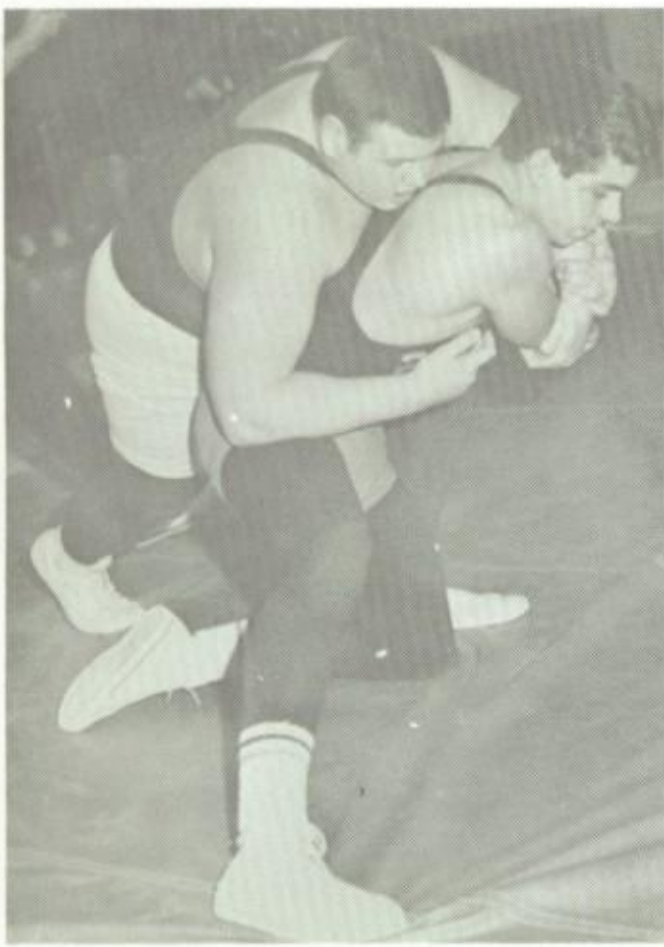

Officers: Larry Jerde, treasurer; Charles Russell, vice-president; Judy Een, secretary; James Rasch, president; Mr. Olson, advisor.

Row 1: S. Flynn, C. Russell, S. Gandt, K. Olson, D. Vanderzee, L. Renwick, C. Sherman. Row 2: J. Een, K. O'Neil, S. Robers, D. Stopa, B. Schmalfeldt, S. Gronke, D. Schipper, J. Sokolski, K. This year the Panthers proved to be the surprise team of the Southern Lakes Conference. After winning the season's opening game, the Panthers went on to win six more games. The championship proved elusive as they first tied Burlington and then lost to Whitewater.

The Panthers finished in a second place tie with a 6-1-1 conference record. The highlight of the season was the 25-7 Homecoming victory over Lake Geneva.

Junior end, Jerry Graff and Junior quarterback, Keith Sonnichsen, were named to the All-Conference first team. Senior guard, Mike Haley, was named to the second team. Two Seniors and two Juniors received honorable mention. They are respectively: Rusty Tilton, Tim Hering, Fred Hewitt, and Dave Gehring.

With a team consisting of seven returning lettermen, this year's wrestling team proved to be one of the strongest in our conference. The team posted a 6-1 conference record and an overall of 9-2. The Wilmot Grapplers took the championship at the Waterford tournaments and a second at the tournaments in East Troy. They placed third in the conference meet held at Burlington. Mike Haley was this year's team captain. Tim Meyer was chosen as next year's captain.

"A" Squad Cheerleaders

This year's "A" squad has been a great asset to the student body and the teams. They have kept our school spirit at an unusually high standard this year. They are, from left to right: Christine Olson, Barbara Chapman, Kathy O'Neil, Donna Vanderzee, Marsha Rittmer, and Linda Johnson.

Senior Cheerleaders

Marsha Rittmer and Kathy O'Neil have added very much to this year's squad and they will be truly missed.

Jeff, (Frenchie) always will remember when I gave you that name and when I got the name "Happy". You are a good boy. Be a good boy this summer and come back already to sell annual and Love, Donna

Jeff, made you the greatest Sit Bull in our school. You're a great guy and contributed a lot to our class. See you next year as a senior! Love, Linda

Music has a universal appeal, and there are many ways of dealing with it. No matter which of the ways you use, the quality of the music produced depends on the musicians, the director's belief in what they are doing, and their zeal for doing it. The Wilmot High School Band, under the direction of Mr. George Amoth, has had a very successful year, thus showing that they had the needed belief and zeal for their music.

The band also had a very busy year highlighted by their concerts and marching performances. They also received band risers, new chairs, and more uniforms.

The pep band played at all the home football and basketball games this year, putting on special marching performances at Homecoming and Dad's Night.

The first concert given by the full band was a pre-Christmas Concert given on December 3. Then on December 17, the Clarinet and Brass Choirs combined with the choruses to present the Christmas Concert.

On February 20, the band's Winter Concert was spotlighted with the guest soloist, Mr. Tietze, the director of the Platteville University Band, Platteville, Wisconsin. Mr. Tietze played Concertino and the ever-popular Clarinet Polka. He also directed the band for one number, Bandology. On March 1, we were the hosts for the Platteville University Band. Mr. Amoth directed the band for one number, National Emblem. Members of the high school band played with the University Band for National Emblem and also Semper Fidelis. After the concert the students from Platteville stayed overnight with students from Wilmot.

On March 27, members of the band participated in the Whitewater Solo and Ensemble Contest held at Whitewater. On April 29, the band had its Spring Concert, highlighted by the awarding of the Lynn Davis Award.

On May 1, Jim Pflueger, Betty Faber, Denny Pflueger, and Barb Schmalfeldt participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

May 8 brought the band back to Whitewater where they participated in the Band and Chorus Festival. June 3 was the last big date for the band, as they played for graduation. It was the last time that the seniors could ever play as a member of the band and they all felt a little saddened as they put their instruments down for the last time.

The Choral Department of Wilmot High School, which includes the Mixed Chorus, Junior-Senior Chorus, and Freshman-Sophomore Chorus, has been very busy. Under the direction of Mr. Frink, they participated in many activities this year, including the Christmas Concert on December 17, with candlelight processional and recessional. On April 29, they joined with the band to produce the annual Spring Music Concert.

The Sophomore, Junior and Senior Triple Trios also went to Whitewater and the Senior Triple Trio sang for the Christmas Party on December 22.

For the annual School Exposition the chorus held a Hootenany, which was very well received by all those who attended.

Recognition

*Jeff
Best Wishes
In your Senior year
Sincerely
Jeff*

Mr. Heigl:

There is really no adequate way to express our thanks to the man who has made this annual possible.

He has shared unselfishly his time and experience so that the 1965 Panther could meet the deadline. He has shown patience when we have had none. He showed us the way when we were lost. He has taken the responsibility and shown the capability of ten men.

Mr. Heigl, somehow thank you does not seem to be appropriate, but it seems to be the only way. So thank you.

Eliza Renwick

Catherine Sherman

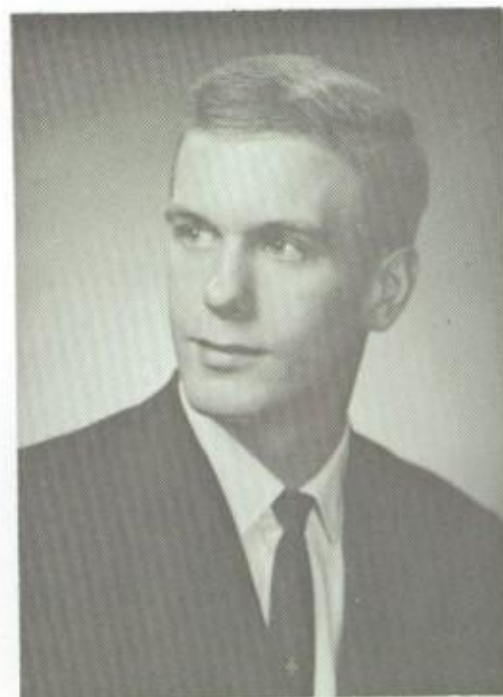

Kenneth Swenson

Liza Renwick received the DAR and Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Awards. Liza was chosen by the Senior class as this year's Daughter of the American Revolution on the basis of her good citizenship, service, dependability, and leadership. The Homemaker of Tomorrow Award is given to the Senior girl who receives the highest score on a written examination.

The Lynn Davis award was presented to James Pflueger at the Spring Concert on April 29. This award is given to the student who contributes the most to the band during the year. It was first given in 1954.

Spade and Spoon

The Senior Class of 1964 selected Marlene Arnold and Jim Rasch to receive the Spade and Spoon awards. To be given the Spade and Spoon award, a student must prove himself outstanding in his scholastic abilities, personality, service to the school. Value to his class is also taken into consideration.

*Jeff, a good
To junior guy.
on getting or going to state and good luck for next year. Chris*

Badger Girl and Boy

The Junior Class chose Christine Olson and Gerry Graff as the Badger Girls' and Badger Boys' State representatives. To be chosen a person must have the qualifications of leadership, courage and cooperativeness, scholarship-rating in the upper third of their class, good health and physical fitness, and willingness to report on their experience to the sponsoring organization and the school. The representatives are sponsored by the Silver Lake and Twin Lakes American Legions.

At the sessions, the students will have an opportunity to learn more about the functions of our government.

Thank you to Mr. Bucci

The Senior Class of 1965 would like to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. Frank Bucci for being our class advisor for the past two years.

We entered our junior year in the fall of 1963 as orphans, but Mr. Bucci willingly became our advisor.

We thank you, Mr. Bucci, for all your time spent helping us in all our activities, especially our Junior Class Prom.

To you, Mr. Bucci, we express our gratitude for all your work, time, guidance, and patience with us, the Senior Class.

Job

The Lettermen's Club is for boys who have proven themselves as fine athletes in their individual sports. They have won a letter by accumulating the required number of points to make them eligible for their letter. They have all worked very hard and are indeed worthy of this recognition.

All - Conference

Mr. Hart, Keith Sonnichsen, Gerry Graff, Dave Gehring, Rusty Tilton, Tim Hering, Fred Hewitt, Mike Haley.

Behind every great team there is a powerful core of players that seem to have that extra something which separates them from the average player. It is no different with our football team. To honor these fine athletes the Southern Lakes coaches chose Keith Sonnichsen and Gerry Graff to the first team; Mike Haley to the second team; and Rusty Tilton, Dave Gehring, Fred Hewitt and Tim Hering received honorable mention.

To have a great team there must be a strong leader to lead them to victory. Such is the case with our coach, Mr. Hart, who was chosen by his fellow coaches as the Coach of the Year.

*Jeff,
Good luck
and I'll see you
out for football.
Have fun.
JFK*

This year's basketball team did a very fine job. Keith Sonnichsen was named to the first team of the Southern Lakes Conference and Paul Richter received honorable mention. We are very proud of these boys because this is a high honor bestowed on them by sportswriters and conference coaches.

Christmas Party

The Christmas Party was held on December 22. Two senior speech classes did the choral reading, "Christmas Canticle." The other speech classes did skits. The Sophomore Triple Trio sang and the Senior Triple Trio led the audience in the traditional Christmas carols. Everyone enjoyed themselves dancing after the program.

School Picnic

The annual school picnic was held on May 21, 1964. After our delicious picnic lunch, prepared by our lunchroom and served by the student council, we all participated in the activities, competing for points to help our individual classes on to victory and winning the Class Trophy. The juniors, sophomores, and freshmen tried very hard, but they were all outpointed, and the Class Trophy went to the senior class.

Shadows

KING MIKE AND QUEEN LINDA

Spirit as well as confidence was at a high point as Wilmot staged a second half rally in defeating the Lake Geneva Badgers, 25 to 7. The spirit was temporarily dampened when Rusty Tilton was injured, but this just increased the team's desire to win.

Carrying on the tradition started by the Class of '64, the Seniors constructed the float which carried Queen Linda Oetting and also took first place with their fine skit.

Shadows were hard to find through the gleam of bright smiles at the dance afterwards, entitled "Shadows of Fall."

Senior Class Play

Row 1: B. Kisner, S. Robers, L. Renwick, R. Gair, J. Mattis, B. Schmalfeldt, P. Panton. Row 2: J. Best, M. Sexton, J. Een, D. Stopa, J. Staudenmaier, K. O'Neil, L. Oetting. Row 3: Miss Howell, J. Sokolski, G. Weaver, R. Nuyttens, D. Avery, D. Hignite, N. Richter, J. Pflueger, K. Swenson, L. Carnahan.

"My pancreas has been bothering me lately. Your wife have trouble with her pancreas?" These are just two of the many humorous lines the Senior Class Play, "The Egg and I," contained. The play, presented on April 3, was a comedy about the MacDonald family from Seattle, who moved to a chicken farm in the Cascade Mountains. The play tells of some of the hilarious situations the family find themselves involved in as they adjust to their new life on the chicken farm.

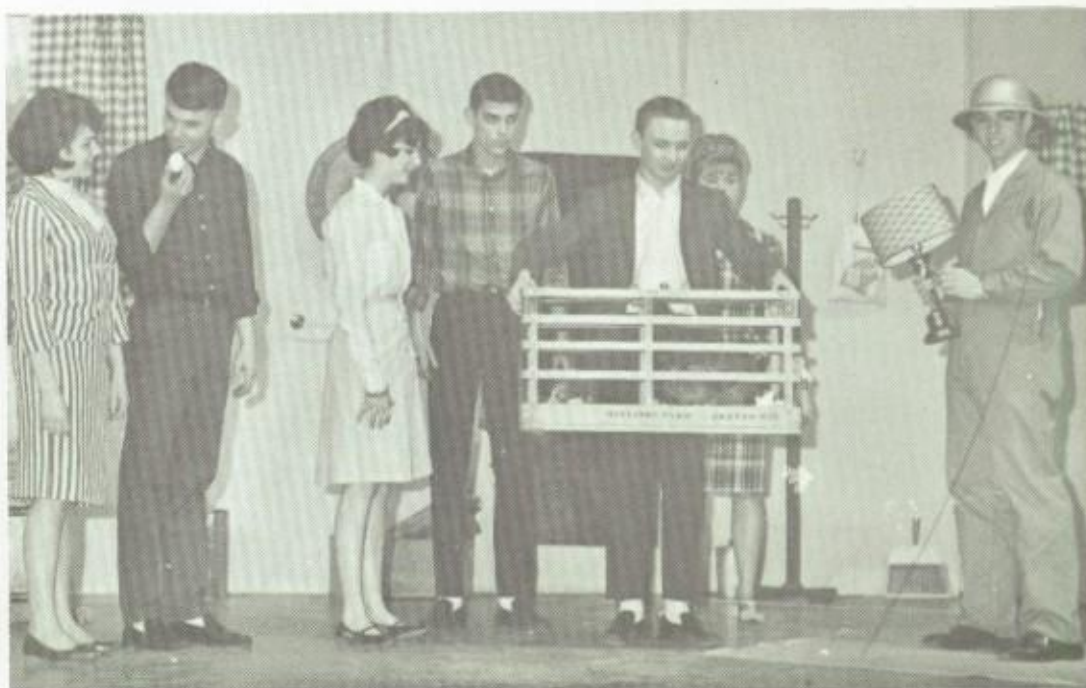

For the first time in many years, the local grade schools came and watched the play's dress rehearsal. The final performance was viewed by over 600 people. All who saw it said they enjoyed it immensely.

The play cast would like to gratefully thank Miss Howell and Ken Swenson for all the hours they spent and all the suppers they missed while helping to make the play the success it was.

Junior Class Play

When Buffalo Bill's Wild West show comes to a small town in Ohio, Frank Butler, played by Gerald Graff, challenges any local person to a shooting. Shy Annie Oakley, played by Natalie Morse, enters the contest and promptly falls in love with Frank. Annie joins the troupe and quickly becomes a star attraction. Frank's pride is hurt, and he leaves to join a rival company. After a "successful" tour of Europe, Annie and Frank are happily reunited.

A black and white photograph of a man and a woman in Western attire. The man, on the left, wears a cowboy hat, a light-colored long-sleeved shirt with a dark vest, and light-colored trousers. He is looking down at the woman. The woman, on the right, is seated on a wooden chair, wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved dress. She is looking up at the man. The background features a window with a dark frame and a door with a glass panel. The floor is light-colored.

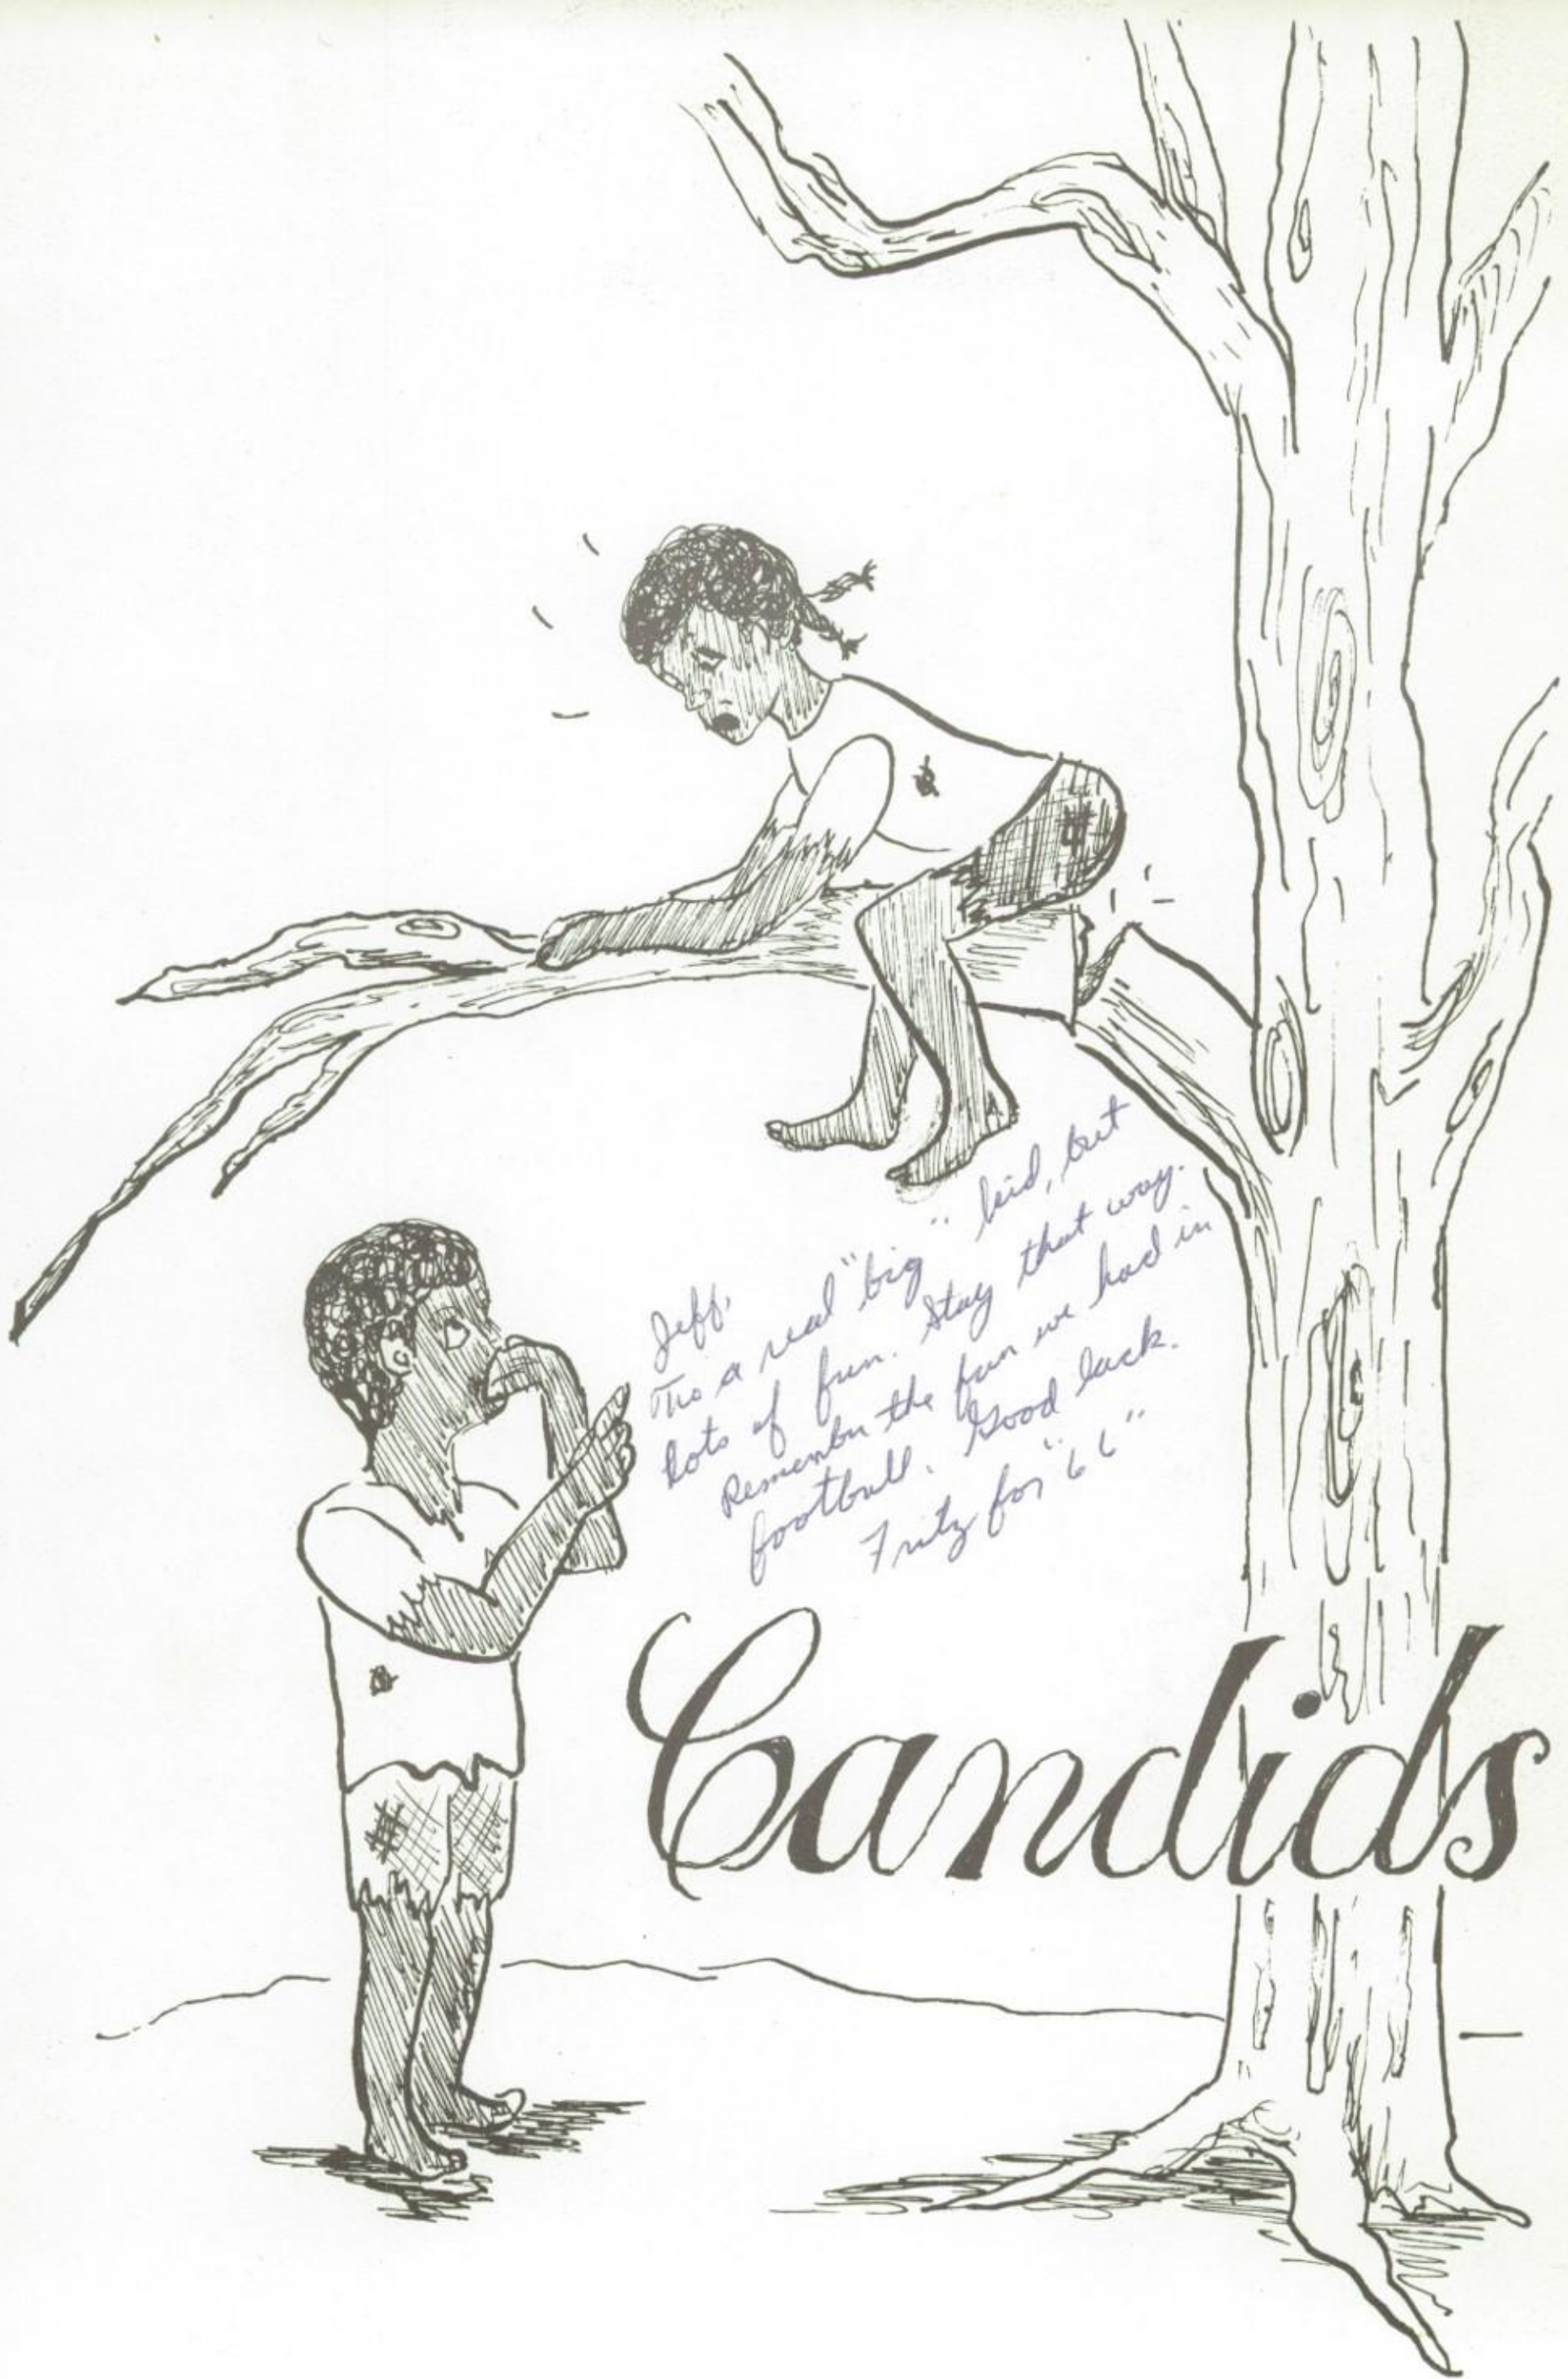

Jeff, great
you were class
the grades like we you could do it
I hope you know

Prophecy

Dear Mr. Bucci:

Kathy Rudy and I took a trip last month and thought we would write and tell you about it. We went on an old-time steamboat and took a cruise down the Mississippi. We left from LaCrosse and our last stop was New Orleans.

On board the ship we met a few of our old classmates. Dennis Avery was at the wheel as captain, and John Arnold and Dale Crichton were first and second mates. The nurse on board was none other than Monica Kucharzyk and the head chef was Frank Straukas.

The ship was just beautiful. It was an exact replica of the old-time steamboats. While we were looking over a pamphlet concerning the cruise, we found the names of some of our old classmates there, too. Bob Baumann, Paul Richter, and Ernie White-rock had designed the ship, Maura Sexton was the interior decorator of the lounge and dining room, and Ken Swenson did the electrical layout. The pamphlet was printed by the Hank Hovorka Printers, Inc.

Our first stop was St. Louis. We were docked there for three days. Kathy and I decided to go and get a room at a hotel in town. When we arrived at the Hotel Hilton, after struggling through the crowded lobby and approaching the main desk, we discovered that the manager was Joe Ceremuga. We asked him if he would give us a room for two. He told us that the hotel rooms were all full because of the Secretaries' Convention that was in town.

We told him good-bye and started out of the lobby when Ellen Meinke came rushing up to us. She asked us if we were there for the convention, too. We told her about our trip and that we would only be in town for a few days. Ellen said that a lot of our friends were in for the convention and that we would all go out the next night. We agreed to meet her in one of the dining halls and left to find another hotel room.

The next morning Kathy and I decided to go have our hair done at The LaBelle Salon. When we arrived, we discovered that the owner was Pat Panton and that Jean Moe, Linda Oetting, and Paula Halko were three of her operators. We chatted for awhile and after we were finished, decided to do some window shopping. On the door of one of the office buildings, we noticed the name of Norman Richter, President, Quicky Savings & Loan Company. We decided to go up and see if it was our old friend.

When we went into the office, Marlene Arnold was sitting behind her desk typing. We said hello and asked if Norman was in. She told us that he was out right now but she would tell him we were here. We realized she was busy so we walked down the stairs and continued our shopping.

Kathy wanted to go to the bank and cash a check so we stopped at the First National Bank. She went up to the teller's window and there was Margaret Nasello. She cashed Kathy's check and said she was on her coffee break in a few minutes, so we waited to talk to her. She told us that Bruce Amborn, Gail Hansen, Ken Schenning, and George Weaver were accountants and that Rick Hansen was president of the bank. We had to get ready for the dinner we were going to at the Hilton so we said a quick goodbye and went back to our hotel.

When we walked into the dining room, we heard voices saying, "We're over here." In the back of the room around a large table were Vern Cornell, Judy Krumpen, Donna Diedrich, Lauren DeRome, Laurel Kaskin, Diana Larson, Sue Lehmann, Sandy Stoxen, and Ellen. We sat down and ordered our meal and began talking over old times. Laurel told us that Sally Nihill, Dan Lois, and Barb Mayo were IBM operators in her office building in Ohio. Sandy told us that she was working at American Motors as secretary to Jim Pflueger. Sue and Donna are working in California and they said that Terry Liesegang, Cheryl Zinke, and Cynthia Stanislawski were working in their building.

During our meal there was a fashion show. The fashion coordinator was Linnea Sattersten and a few of the models were Mary Hardt, Sharron Jones, Sandy Puzerewski, Jan Staudenmaier, and Joanne Muller. The Nelson Combo played some of the latest numbers, and the leader was Leon Nelson. Ray Zaccard played the drums, Rusty Tilton the trombone, and Bill Shepanek the guitar.

After the show was over Diana Larson offered to give us a ride to our hotel. As we were going down the highway, a police car pulled us over to the side. When he approached the car, Diana noticed that it was Jim Cason. He had stopped us because Diana's front headlight had burned out and he told her she should have it fixed. He stood there and talked to us about his job. He said that Bill Porter was also a policeman on his force and that Marsha Rittmer, Ruth Dicklin, and Barb Schmalfeldt were court reporters in his precinct.

We drove on and Diana began to worry about the light and decided to have it fixed, if we didn't mind waiting. We drove into Gandt's Garage and found the proprietor to be Louis Gandt. The chief mechanic came out and it was Jim Fosdick. He said he would fix it while we waited. He told us that Jim Sprague, Leon Smith, and Louis Faber had a gas station of their own in Milwaukee. After the light was fixed, we drove on to the hotel and prepared for our departure the next morning.

The next day we took a cab to the docks. The cab driver was Dwight Vorpahl. When we arrived at our cabin, we decided to walk around the deck before sailing. We were standing by a railing when we saw Frances Davis. She came on board in St. Louis and was going down to New Orleans. We sat in one of the booths of the cafeteria and talked over old times. Frances still lived near Wilmot and she told us about some of the kids whom we used to go to school with. She said that a lot of them had become teachers. Janet Best was an art teacher, Tim Hering and Larry Carnahan taught math, Dave Anderson was a football coach, Judy Een and Kathy O'Neil were speech teachers, Steve Voltz was a librarian, Charles Russell and Barbara Kisner were history teachers, Eileen Ryan was a physical education teacher and Joan Mattis taught music.

We asked her if she knew Ralph Meyer, Ruby Merriman, and Kathy Eckert had gone into the Peace Corps and she told us that they had and that they all enjoyed their work. We told her that we would see her later. She gave us a local newspaper from home and we sat down on some deck chairs to read it.

We looked over the masthead and noticed the name Cathy Sherman. We turned to the page with her column on agriculture. It was very interesting and was designed to keep all the farmers up to date on current products. In the article was Charles Yanke's announcement of a big cattle sale on his farm in Wisconsin and told of her friend, Florence Schipper, who announced a new veterinarian office in Madison.

We turned to the next page and noticed a picture of Dr. Roberta Davis. She had started practice at a near-by hospital after completion of her degree. Below her picture was another one of Susan Drake and an article on her social work with the needy people in the area. The section on servicemen was interesting for us, because we learned that Arlie Graham and Martin Indrika were officers in the Army, Frank Russell and Ray Schuerman were officers in the Marines, and Jack Sokolski, Danny Mizzen, and Jim Lasko were making a career in the Navy.

There was an article in the sports section on Bob Holst who had made a name for himself on a major football team and another article on Walter Stopa taking over the responsibility as new owner of the Wilmot Ski Hills. There was a feature article on the front page honoring those who were in the science field and it gave the names of Larry Jerde, biochemist; Jim Rasch, pharmacy; Calvin Trussell, natural scientist; and Diane Stopa, physics. Ellen Strasburg and Liza Renwick were in the field of research nursing. One of the ads on the third page was Platts' Nursery. We figured that Harry must have been the owner. With a sigh, we laid down the paper and went back to our rooms to retire for the night.

The next morning we saw Frances at breakfast and she said that she had kept in touch with Mardell Rozell who was now in that wonderful institution, known as a housewife. With her in this field were Dorothy LaPalm, Marilynne Grasseschi, and June Fradono. But on the other hand, there were those fellows who had managed to slip by these vows and were still bachelors and free. Pat Mizzen, Robb Gair, Mike Haley, and Ed Mueller enjoyed this luxury now, but their time would soon run out and they, too, would be bound for the altar.

That afternoon we arrived in New Orleans and our trip on the showboat had ended. We knew Sandy Robers lived here, and after a few days of sightseeing, we stopped in to see her. She was an active member in all of the town activities and was a substitute teacher when she was needed. While we were there Sharon Hans stopped in on her lunch hour from her job at the bank. She, too, was active in some of the same organizations Sandy was and she had come to talk about a meeting. We had to leave after a while to get plane tickets for that evening's flight home.

When we boarded the plane and took our seats, we discovered that David Hignite was sitting right in front of us. Next to him was Rick Nuyttens. We found out later that David was touring all over the country speaking on the problems of our country and that Rick Nuyttens was his publicity manager and Doug Reynolds was his business manager. Later on a stewardess came to serve our dinner and we recognized Sharon Czyryk. She told us that John Tindall was our pilot, and Gary Hardt was our co-pilot. She also informed us that Sharon Maurca was also a stewardess but that she was serving on a plane going to Hawaii.

We arrived back in LaCrosse the following day after a long drive from Chicago. We were very glad to get back home, but we had enjoyed our very memorable trip down the Mississippi.

We hope we have brought you some news of your class of 1965 that you didn't know before. We were so happy to see these people again and we felt we had to share our happiness with you.

Yours truly,
Shirley and Kathy

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1965, realizing the fact that we are nearing the end of our days in high school, do solemnly bequeath these gifts of talent, abilities, and character to the students and faculty of Wilmot High School, and declare this our last will and testament.

Bruce Amborn wills his crewcut to Harry Brulport.

Dave Anderson wills the 180 pound weight class in wrestling to Jeff Ohrwall, hoping he can lose about 150 pounds.

John Arnold wills his ability to go out with girls to Richard Ebeling.

Marlene Arnold wills her tremendous ability in geometry to Donna Perry in hopes that she will benefit from it.

Dennis Avery wills his cymbals to Betty Faber.

Bob Baumann leaves Gerry Graff a Beatle album.

Janet Best wills her size 10½ service weight nylons to anyone who won't poke them out at the toes.

Larry Carnahan leaves his bib overalls from the Senior Play to next year's agriculture classes.

Jim Cason wills his nickname "Turk" to Natalie Morse.

Joe Ceremuga wills his membership in the WCTU to Henry Kucharzyk.

Vern Cornell wills her honorable ways in first hour honor study hall to Bob Busby.

Carol Castanza wills her love of the ten-key adding machine to next year's office machines transfer student.

Dale Crichton leaves his motorcycle to Gary Kerkman, knowing he needs it.

Sherrie Czyryk wills her excess weight to Marilyn Kovacevich.

Frankie Davis leaves hoping the future English classes can decipher Mr. Shaner's writing.

Bobbie Davis wills her ability to roast hot dogs over a Bunsen burner and mix kool-aid in a test tube to other physics goof-offs.

Ruth Dicklin leaves her driving ability to anyone who has an understanding father.

Donna Diedrich wills her lifetime membership to Surfside to Ginger Thompson.

Sue Drake wills her daintiness to Michele La-Flamme.

Lauren DeRome leaves her shorthand ability to next year's 40 w.p.m. students.

Kathy Eckert wills her tumbling ability in a Volkswagen to Kathy Haley with best wishes.

Judy Een wills her cool driving ability to Tim O'Mara.

Erik Hansen wills his sarcastic remarks to Dale Schick.

Gail Hansen leaves a ton of newspapers to anyone who takes Social Problems next year.

Mary Hardt leaves her ability to participate in picnics during English class to anyone who has a voracious appetite and the good fortune to sit in the back of the room.

Tim Hering leaves his fishy name to Henry (Frog) Faber.

Dave Hignite leaves his oratorical ability to Dennis Jensen.

Bob Holst leaves his animalistic wrestling technique to Tim Meyer.

Hank Hovorka leaves his kidney to Jack Mather in hopes that Jack will take better care of it than he did during football season.

Marty Indrika leaves his tackle position on the football squad to Bob Busby.

Larry Jerde leaves his nickname "Head" to anyone who can fall off or roll a truck.

Sharron Jones wills her bookkeeping ability to Bruce Sarna.

Laurel Kaskin leaves a pair of binoculars to Mr. Hart to catch future car decorators.

Barbara Kisner leaves all her old soggy clarinet reeds to Carol Ellsworth in hopes that she puts them to good use.

Judy Krumpfen leaves her good-naturedness in the morning to Shirley Gandt.

Monica Kucharzyk leaves her lead foot to her brother Henry.

Dorothy LaPalm wills her quiet ways to Carol Kolbe

Diana Larson wills her tremendous personality to Karen Trussell.

Jim Lasko wills his ability to stamp out small brush fires caused by careless smokers to anyone with a big foot.

Sue Lehmann wills her ability to eat all day long to Bill Urbancik.

Terry Liesegang wills his hot Ford to anyone who thinks they can handle it.

Danny Lois wills his beguiling smile to all the freshman boys.

Sharon Maruca leaves her glowing hair to Linda Skinner.

Joan Mattis leaves her outstanding acting abilities to Dana McCallum.

Barbara Mayo leaves her work of writing 10 term papers to Dale Schick.

Ellen Mienke leaves her petite ways to Kathy Balazs.

Margaret Nasello leaves her shyness on the bus ride home to Sandy Smock.

Leon Nelson wills his saxophone playing abilities to Carl Schultz.

Sally Nihill wills her red hair to Jim Williams.

Rick Nuyttens wills his ability to talk to himself to any future speech student.

Linda Oetting leaves the privilege of riding high to next year's homecoming queen.

Kathy O'Neil wills her contacts to Don Smock.

Pat Panton leaves her knowledge of race cars to all those juniors who can't handle a car over forty miles per hour.

Jim Pflueger leaves telling Henry Faber he should take Advanced Machine Shorthand and typing because it's a woman's world.

Harry Platts leaves his name "Pete" to Mr. Peterson.

Donna Plowman leaves her green hair from St. Patrick's Day to any Irish blonde.

Bill Porter wills his long legs to Eddie Kovacevich.

Sandy Puzerewski wills her ability to be a "party-pooper" to anyone who wants to hit the sack early.

Jim Rasch wills his many abilities to next year's hopefuls.

Liza Renwick leaves her ability to flunk six driver's tests to anyone who isn't in a hurry for a license.

Doug Reynolds leaves his job on the paper staff to John Schmalfeldt.

Norman Richter wills his taxi service to anyone who can afford the gas.

Paul Richter wills his basketball ability to Ron Lasko.

Marsha Rittmer wills her ability to eat to Jeff Ohrwall.

Sandy Robers wills her crooked smile to Corine Singleton.

Mardell Rozell leaves knowing that there is no George Harrison in 5th hour Mixed Chorus — it's really Mr. Frink.

Kathy Rudy wills her question, "Where's Mr. Heigl?" to next year's co-editors.

Charlie Russell wills his sense of humbleness to anyone who is as good a student or as great a wrestler as he is.

Frank Russell wills his quiet ways to Leonard DiMauro.

Eileen Ryan wills her ability to lead in the Pledge of Allegiance to anyone else who is "lucky" enough to have Mr. Heigl 1st hour.

Linnea Sattersten leaves her nickname "Nails" to anyone who thinks they're sharp enough?????

Ken Schenning leaves his nickname "Lily" to anyone ignorant enough to take it!

Florence Schipper leaves her empty bottle of valve oil to Jill Berry in hopes that she will use it.

Barb Schmalfeldt leaves her emoting ability to any future Thespian.

Ray Schuerman leaves his picture taking ability to next year's photographer.

Maura Sexton leaves her position as center to Nancy Burke.

Bill Shepanek leaves his brownie with Mrs. MacDonald to Clyde Baillies.

Cathy Sherman leaves Sue Robers all her used up erasers for Senior Advanced Math.

Leon Smith wills his curly locks to Kathy Bull.

John Sokolski leaves his marching ability to Ronnie Bobis who didn't know which direction to turn next.

Jim Sprague leaves his Southern accent to Miss Howell.

Cynthia Stanislawski wills her short last name to JoAnne Een.

Jan Staudenmaier leaves to Chris Olson the path through Wirth's back yard in hopes Jack never noticed how we ran back and forth.

Diane Stopa leaves to next year's juniors, a place for a great bonfire.

Walter Stopa leaves his chrome wheels to Ken Pearson.

Sandy Stoxen leaves her nose-warmer to Shirley Gandt for those long cold walks to school.

Ellen Strasburg leaves her headaches every Monday morning to her sister.

Frank Straukas leaves his extrovert characteristics to Doris Rasch.

Kenny Swenson wills his harem of second lunch hour to Denny Ketterhagen.

Rusty Tilton leaves his football ability to whoever borrowed his pads during last season and forgot to return them.

John Tindall wills his pep and enthusiasm to next year's football co-captains.

Calvin Trussell leaves a shotgun filled with salt to next year's Juniors so they can guard their bonfire.

Steve Voltz leaves his librarian job to Mike Thom.

Dwight Vorpahl leaves his Mustang to Mr. Heigl.

George Weaver leaves a tape recording of his cough so Wilmot won't ever forget him.

Ernie Whiterock leaves his ability to stay out late to Ken Ankiewicz.

Charlie Yanke wills his ability to bridge out of a pin to Pam Freeman.

Ray Zaccard wills his ability to take off Mondays to Lynn Rittmer.

Cheryl Zinke leaves her old bomb, which brought her faithfully to school, to Donna Zinke.

To Mr. Amoth we leave hoping that next year's band will be class "A."

To Mr. Anderson we leave a free room at the nearest sanitarium for all those nervous breakdowns he will have next year.

To Mrs. Anderson we leave all our broken rackets and dead birdies.

To Mr. Bilotti we leave hoping that he won't have any more clockwatchers in next year's classes.

To Mr. Bucci we leave thanking him for his understanding and happy times he has given us for our memories.

To Mrs. Carr we leave a very interesting novel for her to read during 6th hour library period.

To Miss Fisher we leave all our S&H Green Stamps to help finance her next trip to Europe.

To Mr. Frink we leave an extra thick book of detention slips.

To Mr. Happel we leave hoping he has enjoyed his first year as "Mr. Novak" of Wilmot.

To Mr. Hart we leave him eating between meals.

To Mr. Hausman we leave a pair of boxing gloves for his unruly freshmen.

To Mr. Heigl we leave four extra hours sleep for the morning he had to take a picture of the sunrise.

To Mr. Holte we leave hoping he doesn't dull his ax too much.

To Miss Howell we leave hoping she will some day find a senior class who wants to produce a melodrama for a class play.

To Mrs. Jedele we leave a ticket to Rome to see what a real Roman banquet is like.

To Mr. Konicek we leave him patience to go through the directing of another junior class play.

To Mr. Kroll we leave hoping he has as much success with his basketball team next year as he did this year.

To Mrs. MacDonald we leave a giant size can of "Raid" for her hornets in the library.

To Mr. McCormick the boys of the Ag. class leave their share of the Oscar Mayer bologna.

To Mr. Miller we leave a string so that he can find his book, unbreakable chalk, and a dozen new erasers.

To Mr. Peterson we leave hoping that he gets at least one of the hot dogs the next time someone roasts them on a Bunsen burner.

To Mr. Powers we leave hoping he wrote appropriate references for us.

To Mrs. Reuter we leave a maid to clean the new Home Ec. furniture.

To Mrs. Rusk we leave a tape recorder to tape her letters so she will be able to talk by the end of the day.

To Mr. Schiele we leave our Senior Speech teacher.

To Mr. Shaner we leave taking Calvin Trussell, which we hope is enough.

To Miss Vaitkus we leave admitting that we really are ignorant about art.

To the Juniors we leave the prestige of being "Big Seniors" and the question of where the last four years have gone so fast.

To the Sophomores we leave the privilege of being upperclassmen and all of the fun and excitement they will have being Juniors.

To the Freshmen we leave hoping they make the most of their next three years and enjoy them because they go all too fast.

To Mr. Olson we leave hoping that the honor study hall continues to be as successful as it was this year.

To Mr. Schnurr we leave a speedometer to catch anyone who runs down to the lunch room at noon.

To the Janitors we leave hoping that we never made too much work for them and thanking them for cleaning up after us in the past four years.

To Wilmot High School we leave taking with us the memories of four years of studying, friendships, sports, and the many activities that have made our four years so wonderful and hoping that we are not completely forgotten as we will never forget Wilmot High School.

of the Bank of Burlington

“One of the crucial requirements of the world,” says Theodore Waller, “is that the concept of continuing life-long education be forthwith built into the habit patterns of basic thinking of all the people. Terminating the individual’s educational process with graduation from anything is unthinkable in such a world as we now occupy.”
